VISIT FORT COLLINS: BIKES, BEERS AND BUDDIES

7 MILES

HIGHLIGHTS

- A OLD TOWN SQUARE - There is always something going on in Old Town Square. Wander around to shops, grab ice cream or a local pint. While you're wanderin' the square, use the Pace bike share app to locate your nearest steed and begin your 2-wheeled adventure.
- B CITY PARK - Bring your frisbee, favorite read or a blanket to nap on, because City Park has it all. Whether you're there for a Food Truck Rally on Tuesday, or just a fun evening to watch the sunset over the mountains, City Park is a great place to rest.
- C COLORADO STATE CAMPUS - Stroll through the incredible CSU bike trails, head to the Lory Student Center for a bite or pretend your back in college. Don't forget to catch a photo at the CSU Oval before rolling on.
- D ANNUAL FLOWER TRIAL GARDENS - If you're there while the flowers in bloom, you're in for a treat. Bring your camera and definitely stop and smell the roses.
- E NEW BELGIUM BREWING - Known for its bikes and brews, New Belgium is a high point of interest for anyone in Fort Collins. Roll up for a pint of Fat Tire and join locals and tourists on the patio for music, fun or a game of Corn Hole.
- F GINGER AND BAKER - New to the scene, Ginger and Baker bakes up the best pies and treats you could imagine. In the mood to drink your pie? Order a pie milkshake, you won't be disappointed.

ABOUT THE ROUTE CURATOR

LAURA SMITH

Laura is a Nebraska native with a background in communications, marketing and events. She is passionate about using bicycles as a main form of transportation, and can usually be found pedaling all over Fort Collins. Laura is the Community Relations Coordinator with Bike Fort Collins; a writer for Scene magazine, covering all things bikes in the Front Range; and a League of American Bicyclists Certified Instructor. When she isn't riding or writing, she can be found planning her next adventure.
