HIGHLIGHTS

DAY 1:

- A CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY - The oldest brewpub in the Boston area and makes some of the best local beers. They have a constantly rotating selection of beers spanning the style spectrum. Seek out their barrel aged and sour beers that almost always grace their taps. While here grab a bite to eat, food is key to a fun day of consuming the local libations.
- B GRAND TEN DISTILLING - So many beers, time to switch it up to another local libations of hand-crafted spirits. From their gin to their flavored spirits you can't go wrong. These guys love playing around with their still.
- C TRILLIUM- Known for their killer hoppy beers, stop by for some hoppy nectar tasters and be sure to leave with a growler to enjoy post biking.
- D NORTH BANK BRIDGE - Beautiful new soaring pedestrian/bike bridge that finally connects Cambridge to Charlestown for the first time since 1835.
- E DOWNEAST CIDER- If your palate is getting fatigued with all the beer, swing by the cider house and sample some apple goodness. Try the cranberry blend!

DAY 2:

- F MYSTIC- Beautiful taproom and expertly crafted saisons. After biking to Chelsea their thirst quenching table saison will be the perfect refreshment.
- G NIGHT SHIFT BREWING - Born from a passion for our homebrewing hobby, Night Shift has developed into a beast of its own. Specializing in pushing the boundary of what beer can be by brewing fresh hoppy beers, barrel aged treats and using funky ingredients like purple carrots to habanero peppers to craft one of a kind beers. One the weekends hit up the food truck parked out front!
- H IDLE HANDS / ENLIGHTENMENT - Just down the road from Night Shift, these guys are crafting Belgian and Farmhouse beers that are sure to please your palate. Don't be scared of the warehouse location there is good people and good beer inside!
- I PURITAN & COMPANY - After a long day of biking you deserve a killer meal. Hit up Puritan for fresh New England farm inspired menu. Relax, enjoy the food, your company and a final tasty beer.

ABOUT THE ROUTE CURATOR

ROB BURNS

Rob fell in love with beer in college and quickly grew from drinking Natty Light to drinking craft beer from around the world. His passion for beer drove him to brew his own. After years of brewing at home with his buddies they decided to form Night Shift Brewing. Rob is responsible for the production of beer at the brewery alongside his awesome team of brewers and production assistants.
