

	CARRY-ON	GATE CHECK	LUGGAGE
Conveniences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •You are the only person to handle bike •Time saved from not checking luggage •On arrival, reassembled bike serves as luggage transport to airport exit 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Not lugging Brompton down plane aisle •Not worrying about overhead bin availability •On arrival, walking to baggage claim with small carry-on 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Not lugging Brompton through airport and down plane aisle •No security stress •Not worrying about overhead bin availability
Inconveniences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Bringing tools •Prepping bike for carry-on •Security stress •Keeping an eye on your bike pre-departure •Bike counting as carry-on item •Boarding order determines storage room for bike •Reassembling bike's saddle & handlebar position 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Security stress •For departure, toting bike from security to gate •Keeping an eye on your bike pre-departure •Potential for checked baggage damage or loss •Time spent waiting for checked baggage 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Time spent waiting in ticket agent line •Luggage fee is dependent on ticket agent's disposition •Potential for checked baggage damage or loss •Time spent waiting for checked baggage
Accessories Needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Brompton cover ($45) or IKEA Dimpa bag ($3) •Hex wrench set •Bungees 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Same as left plus Brompton B Bag ($251) •Bungees 	Same as left plus Brompton Clapton Hard Box ($350)
Bike to/from Airport	Yes	Yes	Not with hard box
Airline Cost	Free	Free	$0-150